Title

Title

Author EXAMPLE [1]

Summary

Maximum 200 words.

Keywords

Key words in Portuguese (maximum seven), separated by semicolons.

Abstract

Translation of the summary into English. Maximum of 200 words.

Keywords

Key words in English (maximum seven), separated by semicolons.

Chapter 1. (Insert the title of the chapter here). Arial, 16 point, bold, left aligned, 0 points before and 0 points after, 1.5 line spacing and 0 cm indentation. Use the same formatting for all level 1 titles

__Body text__ should be formatted in Arial, 12 point, justified paragraph, 0 points before and 0 points after, 1.5 line spacing and 1 cm indentation.

---

[1] ■ author's name, in full and surname only in capitals, two lines below the title, aligned to the right;

■ scientific affiliation, in a footnote, called at the end of the author's name, the professional activity, stating the Department, Faculty, School, and/or Research Centre (in the case of a lecturer), the Postgraduate Programme (in the case of 2nd or 3rd cycle students) or the Undergraduate Course (in the case of 1st cycle students); the name of the University; the city; the country and the author's e-mail address.

The reference for bibliographical and documental sources should be made according to ISO 690 in footnotes.

Section 1. 1 (Insert the section title here) A decimal number structure should be used to number the sections and subsections. Arial, 14 point, bold, left aligned, 0 points before and 0 points after, 1.5 line spacing and 0 cm indentation. Use this same formatting in all level 2 headings.

Body text should be formatted in Arial, 12 point, justified paragraph, 0 points before and 0 points after, 1.5 line spacing and 1 cm indentation.
The reference for bibliographical and documental sources should be made according to ISO 690 in footnotes.

Subsection 1.1.1 (Insert the title of the subsection here) A decimal number structure should be used to number the sections and subsections. Arial, 12 point, bold, left aligned, 0 points before and 0 points after, line spacing 1,5 and 0 cm indentation. Use this same formatting in all level 3 titles.

Body text should be formatted in Arial, 12 point, justified paragraph, 0 points before and 0 points after, 1.5 line spacing and 1 cm indentation.
The reference for bibliographical and documental sources should be made according to ISO 690 in footnotes.

Acknowledgements

Bibliographical references (in alphabetical and chronological order, indicating the works cited in the text; optionally, works consulted or recommended may be included, not mentioned in the text, also in alphabetical and chronological order.